Round 1: Ice Breakers

Everyone has to introduce themselves (30sec). Afterwards, we all play the poly spectrum game.

Here we wish to give time for all participants to get a feeling for each other.

Save My interests

First you submit/save 'your interests'; people you deem interesting.

These are NOT your final matches.
- you can change that after Round 2.

Our software will take into account; your preferences, other preferences, gender and sexualities of all participants. Romantic interests take preference over social interests.

After everyone submits, the Software will spit out 5 rounds of people that would best match your and everyone's else's interests.

Round 2: 1-on-1's

Here is where our Matching system works the hardest; It will match you up with 5 people for 5 rounds of 1-on-1 speed dates.

With each person you get 5 min to shine.

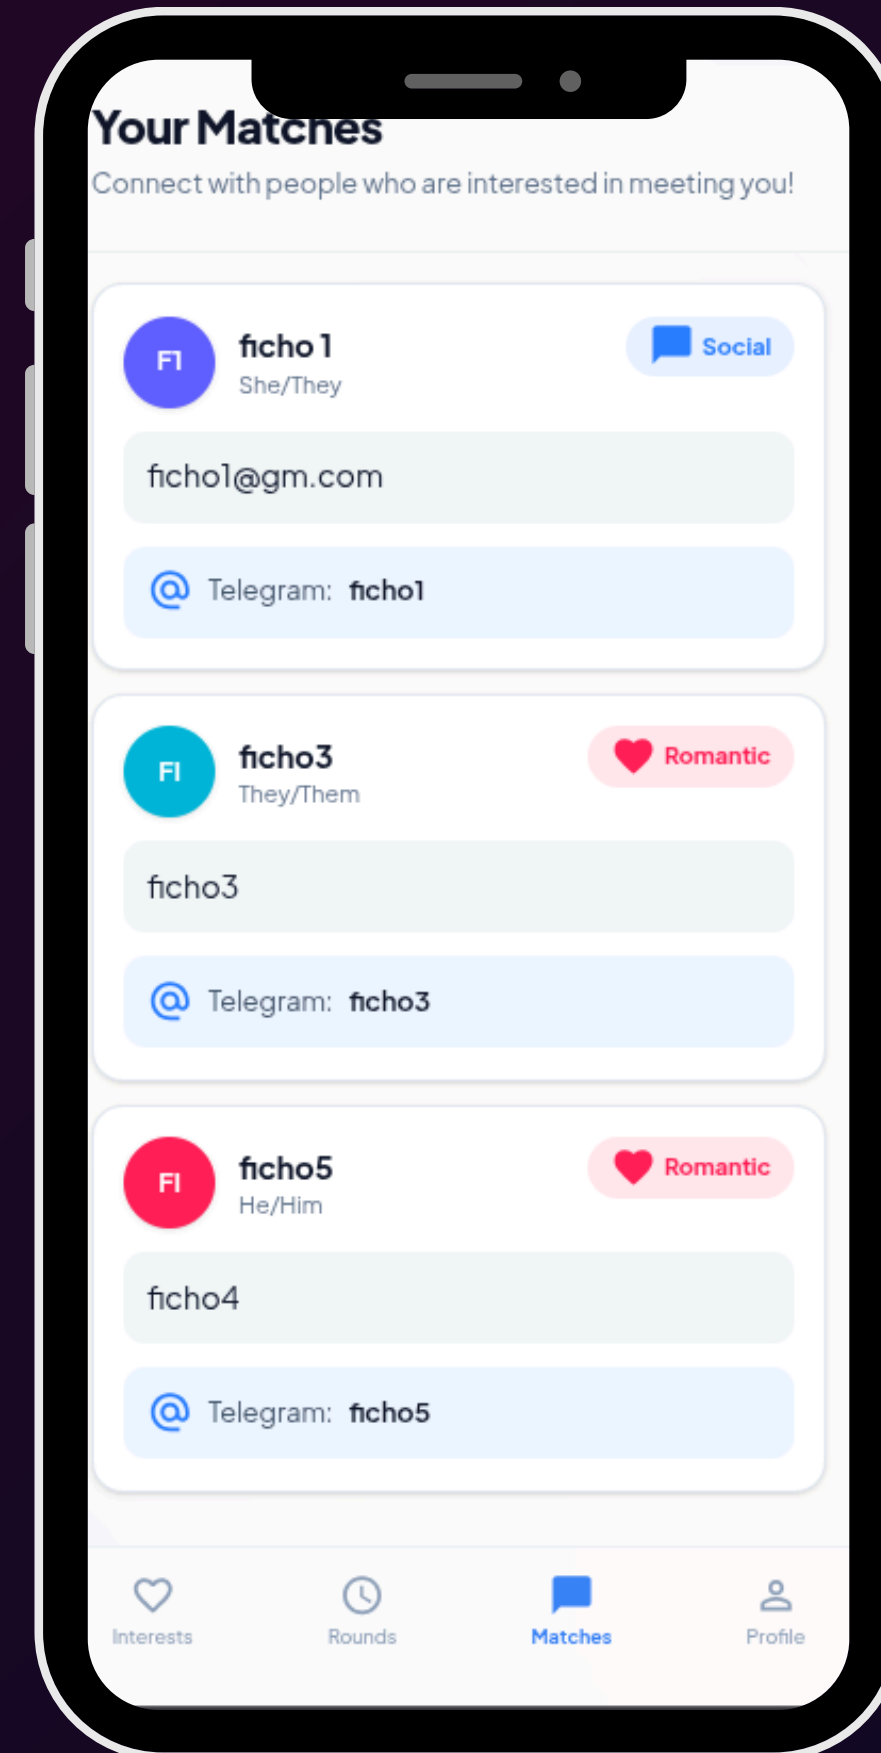

After the 5 rounds you'll be able to change your initial interests and Save Final matches.

At the end, our system cross-checks mutual interests and shows you who you matched with, and their contact.

We publish all matches next day at noon.

You will have time to sleep on it and decide who you wish to match with.
